DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1 and 4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

in claim 1, line 2, before "conductor tracks" insert --said flat conductors in--,

in claim 1, line 4, before "tracks" insert --in said conductor--, in claim 4, line 2, before "conductor tracks" insert --said flat conductors in--,

in claim 4, line 4, before "tracks" insert --in said conductor--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ueno (2001/0011603).

Ueno discloses a laminated or extruded flat flexible cable comprising electrical flat conductors, wherein the widths of the flat conductors in conductor tracks are variable (Figs 2 and 9) and are staggered in an arithmetic sequence, and wherein the spacings between adjacent conductors in the conductor tracks are of the same size or also staggered in an arithmetic sequence (re claim 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3 and 4 are allowed.
5. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record does not teach or suggest a laminated or extruded flat flexible cable comprising all the features as recited in the claims and in combination with connectors having contacts which are provided equidistant from each other at a spacing equal to the width of a narrowest conductor track multiplied by a base spacing between the conductor tracks (re claim 2), with the flat conductors in conductor tracks being in one plane and the widths of the flat conductors in conductor tracks being staggered in an arithmetic sequence (re claim 4).

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
